Thank you for your subscription.

At the Point & Shoreland Journal we strive to bring you the news and events that affect your daily life.

We invite you to flip through the pages of your hometown newspaper to find information on local news, sports, schools and community activities.

As your hometown newspaper, we encourage Point Place residents to submit news stories, human interest stories and pictures. This newspaper depends on its readers to be the main source of news. It thus becomes a reflection of this community. Whatever the reader thinks is important enough to appear in its pages, they can submit, or call to the attention of a staff member.

Newspapers are the dominant medium for both editorial information and advertising. Americans are turning to their weekly community newspapers more and more for pertinent, local information and advertising.

If it happened in Point Place... read about it in the Point & Shoreland Journal.
